

As an American who values my privacy I would like to have this petition denied. Because I have a telephone I am exspected to welcome unwanted calls, therefore because I have a front door should I welcome anyone that wants to walk through it? I do not think so. Thank You for using the common sense you have. Remember that without the little man there is no use for big bussiness.